By Car

Coming by car is generally not recommended, as the car will rather be a burden in the city, while public transportation coverage is excellent. If you still want to come by car, here are some general directions. Please use a route planner (such as <http://maps.google.com/>) for more details.

- from the South and East: Südbahnhof (A2) – Südosttangente (A23) – Exit Knoten Prater – Schüttelstraße – Untere Donaustraße – Stubenring – Universitätsring
- from the West: Westautobahn (A1) – Hietzinger Kai – Wiener Straße – Schönbrunner Straße - – Karlsplatz – Opernring – Universitätsring
- from the North: Donauuferautobahn (A22) – Südosttangente (A23) – Exit Knoten Prater – Schüttelstraße – Untere Donaustraße – Stubenring – Universitätsring

Please bear in mind that you have to buy the official highway toll label (“Vignette”) before using any motorway in Austria (more information at <http://www.asfinag.at/en/home>).

Please also note that public parking is not free of charge in the inner districts of Vienna and it is limited to a maximum of 2 hours per stay. For more information, consult the parking management website of the City of Vienna. There are also underground car parks (Parkgarage Rathauspark) close to the venue, but they are rather costly.

Further information can be found on the EPS-HEP2015 website under the tap Travel: <http://eps-hep2015.eu/travel>

Public Transport in Vienna

---

Some basic facts about public transportation:

Luckily, all means of public transportation within the city limits can be used with the same ticket:

- Underground (“U-Bahn”)
- Urban Railways (“S-Bahn”)
- Tramway
- Bus

Underground

S-Bahn

Tramway

Bus

Even a single ticket allows (multiple) connections, but no return trips.

Where do I get a ticket?

Various types of tickets are sold at tobacconists (“Trafik”), at vending machines in underground and S-Bahn stations and in some hotels. Even though there are also other options, it is highly recommended that you buy the ticket before you enter the means of transportation.

NEW: Buy and print your ticket online!

(<https://shop.wienerlinien.at/index.php/tickets/4/subtickets/0.ticket>)

There are several types of tickets:

- Single ticket (2.20 Euros)
- Ticket with 4 single strips (8.80 Euros) – each strip is valid for one person and one zone. The whole city is one zone; a trip to the airport (by S-Bahn) requires a second zone (see the information in the arrival section). A multi-strip ticket can be shared by up to four people as long as everybody has his/her own strip. At vending machines (e.g. at the airport), you can also purchase tickets with 2 zones (=valid to go to the city).
- Weekly pass: valid Mo 0:00 a.m. – Mo 9:00 a.m.; transferable (16.20 Euros)
- Various tickets valid for a day or more
  - 24 hours ticket (7.60 Euros)
  - 48 hours ticket (13.30 Euros)
  - 72 hours ticket (16.50 Euros)
- Half-price tickets are required for children (aged 6-15), dogs (except when carried in a container) and bicycles

Tickets must be stamped when beginning your journey. Please refer to the conference website at <http://eps-hep2015.eu/public-transportation> for details.

This tour of the imperial apartments, which will take you on a journey through the centuries, starts behind a massive door at the top of the Blue Staircase. It begins in the west wing of the palace, with the apartments of Emperor Franz Joseph and his wife, Elisabeth, which are furnished in 19th-century style, and continues through the state rooms in the central wing. From there the tour proceeds to the richly-appointed apartments once occupied by Maria Theresa. The Franz Karl Apartments, which were occupied by Emperor Franz Joseph's parents, Archduchess Sophie and Archduke Franz Karl, conclude the tour. All the rooms in the palace have their own stories to tell, stories on the margins of great historical events which are indicative of the lifestyle, atmosphere and world view of the imperial era.
